WHAT NEXT?—Mutual friends are wondering what the next development will be in the differences between Harry Leon Wilson, author, and Theodore M. Criley, landscape artist, the high spot of which was a hot fight at Carmel, Cal. This photo of Wilson and Mrs. Wilson was taken upon his return from Honolulu recently.

HOLD 'ER, JOAN, SHE'S A BREAM!—Joan Elmer Woodbury, six, is the world's youngest bronch buster. She has been named queen of the San Francisco May fete. Here she is whoopin' her up after she heard of her election.

WHERE COAL IS LOADED.—A typical tippie house, where coal is loaded onto freight cars at the mine.

NOT ON THE CIRCUS PROGRAM.—Barbed spears and stout ropes kept this tier quiet while a French specialist performed a difficult operation. Both the patient and the doctor are alive to tell the tale.

LACROSSE SEASON OPENS.—An exciting moment in the first lacrosse game of the season when Stevens Institute of Technology defeated the New York Lacrosse club 7 to 0.

BIKE TRIP TO COAST—Martin Glicker, 17, has started on a bike trip from Atlantic City to the Pacific coast. Even with a puncture or two he expects to make the trip in two months.

ACCUSED—Edward T. Mercer, 31, sailor of Norfolk, Va., is under arrest at Baltimore following the finding of the mutilated body of his wife, Ruth, 20, in Chesapeake Bay at Ocean View. Mercer says he can establish his innocence and that he has not been in Ocean View for three years.
